THE SANTANA CENTER'S EQUINE ADOPTION CONTRACT

This agreement is made on this ____ day of _____, 20____, by and between _____, hereinafter referred to as 'Adopter" and The Santana Center, hereinafter referred to as SC.

SC owns an equine named _____.
The equine is not registered registered. (The registration number is: #_____).
This equine is a mare gelding _____ in color with the following markings:
_____.

The Adopter wishes to adopt the above-described equine and agrees to the following conditions:

- The Adopter agrees to pay SC the adoption donation of $_____.
- SC will transfer ownership of the above-described equine when all signatures are finalized.
- The Adopter will be financially responsible for all expenses incurred by the above-described equine.
- •SC will make site visits to check on the health, care, environment and well-being of the above-described equine throughout its life per the SC Inspection Policy. Further site visits may be scheduled if SC deems them necessary.
- The Adopter agrees to allow a representative of SC access to the equine and its home for purposes of site visits providing that the visit is prearranged or that the representative has a letter signed by at least one officer of SC in his or her possession stating why an unannounced visit is being conducted.
- The Adopter agrees to release the above-described equine to the representative of SC if that representative has found that the equine is not being adequately cared for.
- The Adopter agrees to provide adequate food, water, shelter, worming, hoof care, and veterinary care to the above-described equine for the duration of the equine's life.
- The Adopter agrees to never sell, give away, lease, or send to slaughter the above-described equine for the duration of its life. If the Adopter becomes unable care for the equine or no longer wishes to keep the equine any time in its life, the Adopter must return the equine to SC. If the Adopter violates this, the Adopter agrees that a value of $2500 has been placed on the equine and that the Adopter may be held liable for the value of the equine and any costs incurred by SC when trying to recover the equine.
- The Adopter agrees never to breed the above-described equine for the duration of the equine's life. If the above-described equine is bred, both the equine and its resulting off-spring will automatically become property of SC and may be confiscated once it is old enough to be weaned.
- The Adopter agrees to not hold SC responsible for any veterinary care or other expenses incurred by the equine after the adoption contract is signed.

- The Adopter agrees to provide written notice to SC when the above-described equine dies.
- The Adopter agrees to provide written notice of any change of location of the above-described equine for the duration of equine's life.
- The Adopter agrees to provide written notice of any changes in his or her residence or contact information.
- SC will not be responsible for any damages or injuries caused by the above-described equine.
- If the Adopter dies, his or her family will be allowed to keep the equine providing they are able and willing to provide a home for the equine.
- This contract may be altered or amended only upon written agreement of the Adopter and SC.
- The adopter agrees not to hold The Santana Center liable in the event of injury, death, or damage to any human, animal, or property as a result of activities or actions of the equine. The adopter agrees to assume all liability associated with the equine.
- This contract and all of its provisions shall bind the heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and assigns of the parties hereto.
- If any portion of this contract is held to be invalid or unenforceable, all other portions shall continue in full force.
